No.Functions of Inspectors of Panchayets.

(6) ^{all} Replies from the Deputy Commissioners have been received. ^{Among the functions proposed by them} Inspection of sources of water supply at least once a year and audit of accounts have -- already been included in the duties of Inspectors in the Rules already approved. ^{to the} Checking of Vaccination, ^{and seeing} proper registration of Vital Statistics, adoption of preventive measures against -- spread of epidemics, ^{and} ~~or~~ procuring necessary medical aid ^{to} ~~through~~ the Panchayets during epidemics have ^{also} been proposed to be included in the functions of ^{the Inspectors} ~~Amildars~~.

These items do not fall within the scope of Village Panchayets ^{and cannot be regarded as functions in regard to} ~~and they cannot be included in the rules~~ to be prescribed. ^P The other items to be included as proposed by the Deputy Commissioners are the -- following:-

1. Touring in the Taluk for not less than 20 days in the month.
2. Inspecting Books, Proceedings, records and Registers of Panchayets.
3. Keeping the Amildar informed of the state of working of Panchayets by submission of fortnightly diaries.
4. Bringing to the notice of the Amildar -- ~~forthwith~~ any mismanagement by the Panchayet which would justify his interference.
5. Scrutinising plans and estimates.
6. Inspecting Public Works during progress.
7. Inspecting Village Sanitation and Institutions managed by Panchayets.
8. Inspecting places where ^{are} offensive and dangerous trades or businesses carried on.

4) Under clause (n) of Sub-section (2) of Section 65 Government may make rules as to the powers and functions of Inspectors of Panchayets in regard to the Administration of Panchayets. Under Section 48 of the Regulation, the Deputy Commissioner ^{& not govt has power to} may authorise the Inspector of Panchayets to inspect and examine the books, proceedings, and records of Panchayets. The powers and duties to be exercised and performed by the Inspector ^{are (i)} on the one hand to help the Panchayets in the Administration of their local affairs and ⁽ⁱⁱ⁾ on the other hand to help the Amildar in exercising his power of inspection and supervision and control over the Panchayets. Prescribing a long list of duties to be performed by the Inspector will result in the Inspector's claiming that they are bound to do only these duties ~~that are~~ specified in the rule. Again, the functions to be performed by the Inspectors, with the exception of audit of accounts ^{are} ~~is~~ are all ministerial and no power is specifically conferred on the Inspector in the ^{Regulation} ~~Panchayet~~. The Amildar has been entrusted with certain powers in the Regulation such as passing the budgets, providing performance of duties in default of panchayets inspection of records etc., and ^{there is no indication of} ~~it does not appear to be~~ the intention of the Legislature that he should ^{have power to} ~~delegate~~ his powers or functions to the Inspector. The Inspector is the Assistant to the Amildar and he is bound to carry out any lawful order passed by the Amildar. In these

With reference to your letter No. L.2566-74/L.B.26-26-43

dated 9th October 1926, calling for my suggestions as to what functions may be assigned to Inspectors of Panchayets, I have the honour to state that the Inspectors of Panchayets are practically the sole local agents to see to the proper working of Panchayets and help the Amildars in their administration. Besides the general supervision of working of the Panchayets under the guidance of the Amildar, the Inspectors may be entrusted with the following items of work connected with Panchayets:

1. Inspection of village sanitation etc.,
2. Periodical examination and audit of accounts, registers etc., of Panchayets.
3. Supervision of collection of revenue and execution of distraint warrants whenever necessary.
4. Supervision of Public works undertaken for execution by the Panchayets themselves, either on Amani system or on contract.
5. Watching the proceedings of Panchayet meetings whenever possible.
6. Watching the elections of members, secretary and chairman as far as possible.
